CHRISTIANS ARISE! DRAFT MACARTHUR

By ROBERT H. WILLIAMS

News Analyst, Lecturer and Former Counter Intelligence Officer, P. O. Box 868, Santa Ana, Calif.

The telescope of history is focused on the year 1952.

A quick glance backward shows that the forces of Jewish nationalism — concentrated behind various banners — Marxism, Communism, Socialism, Zionism, liberalism, democracy, New Dealism — have marched steadily to victory after victory, with only temporary setbacks, since the French Revolution.

For a hundred and sixty years this world power machine has been winning its major battles over Western peoples. It has captured the minds of millions among the "minorities" in Asia and Africa and in American cities, and indoctrinated them with hatred for American leadership, principles and traditions.

The agents of this invisible power, which holds the Iron Curtain countries enslaved, have infiltrated almost every branch of our government, high and low.

It has been able to use the State Department for a number of years, aiding the Marxist Revolution or preventing any serious attack on that Revolution. It is preventing victory and prolonging the slaughter of our youths in Korea. It threatens another world war.

But never have we seen such a rising tide of American spirit as we are now witnessing. Already we have won some sizeable battles against the Communist-Zionist power. Do not overlook the fact that a scattering of patriotic individuals and organizations across the country, with hardly any unity and no combined program of operations, have stopped the "civil rights" drive; have forced Congressional investigations of Communist activities; have forced the Department of Justice to act against a few Communist agents, and have succeeded in reversing the world-government resolutions in 17 out of 22 states.

These American pressure groups have actually licked the mighty Zionist machine in 17 state legislatures. The Zionists, Communists and "liberals" did everything in their power to keep these legislatures from rescinding the world government resolutions. We whipped them.

The one big project in the coming eight months is to whip the Marxist machine in the presidential campaign. The preferred candidate of this machine, General Eisenhower (see my Special Eisenhower Edition) must not get the Republican nomination. We must see that MacArthur or Taft gets that nomination.

We have to fight immediate battles to persuade Congress to shut the gates to undesirable immigrants; and we have to stop, if possible, the Universal Military Training power drive. There are a number of other bills which urgently need our support.

But the big job is to get the right man into the White House.

Let us take a quick look at the relative position of the several candidates as of today; then let us see how we can best go about furthering the support of that great Anglo-Saxon leader, Douglas MacArthur.

Reports and polls show that Eisenhower has lost heavily both in popular acclaim and in expected support of delegates. These figures are nebulous and subject to change; anything could happen between now and the conventions. But as of now, it seems unlikely that Eisenhower can regain his losses. He probably cannot get the nomination unless he develops the courage to state where he stands on all important issues, and such a statement might finish him off permanently, because he stands with the Truman-Frankfurter-Acheson internationalists.

Taft's stock has risen steadily since last summer; he ranks even with and possibly a little ahead of Eisenhower in popular support, and far ahead of him in delegates pledged or expected to support him.

MacArthur is steadily rising in the presidential picture. Doubtless the most popular man in our time, he nevertheless was not considered seriously for the presidency by the bigwigs and by most of the columnists and radio commentators, until very recently. But unorganized demand for him is becoming so strong in all parts of the country that columnists now almost universally mention him among the most likely nominees at the Republican convention, July 7.

Stassen and Warren are far down the list. Congressman Werdel in California and a powerful group of anti-Warren, anti-New Deal conservative Republicans have openly challenged Warren's attempt to win the California delegation in the June 3 primary in this state. Werdel already has gone on the radio with his campaign and his backers already are taking newspaper ads. He is pulling no punches.

His backers appear to have ample funds. Many voters are sick of Warren's New-Dealing, his efforts to impose the Communist FEPC measure on this state, his stubborn opposition year after year to loyalty oaths and to enactment of Communist control laws, his constant catering to the Anti-Defamation League and the Communist element.

Stassen's entry in the California primary will split Warren's New Deal vote.

"ANTI-SEMITISM" IN RUSSIA IS MYTH

Despite general news releases that Jews in Russia are persecuted, and Zionist-prompted protests to the U. N. that investigations be made in Hungary and Poland where (the Zionists allege) discrimination against the Jews is shown, it is an irrefutable fact that there is no persecution of Jews in the U. S. S. R. and Communist-controlled countries.

While "persecution" propaganda is being written for the general public, the Jewish Telegraph Agency tells another story. Through a dispatch from its London office, it stated: "A number of Jews have received Stalin Prizes for their contribution to Soviet art and literature, according to a report received here from Moscow. Among the Jews honored are: Samuel Marshak, first prize in poetry; Lev Kassil, novelist; Wolf Rappaport, for films on China; Michael Gerdin and Wolf Cytron, for the film 'Moussorgsky'; Michael Romo, Alexander Stolper, M. Rappaport, for film."

Also through the London office of the Jewish Telegraph Agency comes the report that the Jewish Social and Cultural Union of Poland has announced its intention of creating schools and special study centers where Jews can learn "Marxist and Leninist" theory. The article further stated: "At a recent meeting in Lodz, Dr. M. Sfard, a representative of the Union, said that a new Jewish theater would be built in that city next year. He also spoke of the growing number of Yiddish books published in Poland."

A very recent report of the "Bias-free Life of Jews in U.S.S.R.," which "Cheers Visitors," was published in the radical Daily People's World of Los Angeles on October 29, 1951. According to the write-up, two Canadian Jewish trade unionists, Pearl Wedro and Dave Biderman, visited the U.S.S.R. with eight other Canadian unionists. Commenting on their visit, Wedro and Biderman declared:

"We went wherever we wanted to go and were shown all we asked to see . . . We spoke freely and frankly to young people and old people, ordinary citizens, top officials, asked questions and made inquiries.

"After just one day there, the absurdity and falsity of the charge of anti-Semitism was so apparent that we realized it would be insulting to even ask if anti-Semitism exists in the Soviet Union."

Miss Wedro and Biderman interviewed David Zaslavsky, the internationally-famous Jewish editorial writer of Pravda. During the conversation they took up many issues, including Jewish life in the Soviet Union. On that subject, Zaslavsky said:

"You have visited many different parts of our vast country. You saw for yourselves. I am certain that wherever you went you experienced no anti-Semitism, or sign of it. Undoubtedly, you must have met many Jews of differing occupations who have been honored for their contributions to the country and to the building of Socialism. You have seen for yourselves that in our country it is impossible to even think of any sort of discrimination. This is a socialist country!"

"Jews in the U.S.S.R. can develop economically and culturally according to their own choice and desire. There are Yiddish newspapers in the Jewish autonomous region, Yiddish schools, theaters, and so on."

"No change of any kind has taken place in the national Stalinist policy with regard to the Jews."

Thus spoke a Jew in a Jew-ruled country.

The real purpose of the "anti-Semitism" propaganda remains a mystery unless the Jews are using it as a smokescreen to conceal the fact the Communism is Jewish. The vast majority of American people are at last awakening to the fact that not only is Communism Jewish; that the Jews financed and promoted the Revolution in Russia but are the financiers and guiding spirit behind world-wide Revolution expressed in the great Jewish ideal of a United Nations. The Jewish writer Eli Eberlin in his book, Jews of Today (1928), wrote:

" . . . Jews could not maintain their state among the states of antiquity and fatally had to become the revolutionary ferments of the world. (p. 143) "That which is also Jewish in Bolshevism is the renunciation to rewards in a world beyond, and the hunt for happiness in this world. But this idea which marks the triumph of Jewish values over 'mystico-christian' values is now common to all peoples." (p. 155)

Communism and Zionism are one and the same thing—both are identical in concept—the twin evils of the age old political Messianic dream of world conquest by a united Jewry. As Nahum Sokolow, world Zionist leader, expressed it in his book, The History of Zionism (p. 38):

"The downfall of the stardom of Russia was undoubtedly one of the greatest events in the world's history. Russia entered into a period of Revolution which seemed to bring with it all the blessings of right and liberty. . . . The restrictions affecting nationalities and creeds were removed. But far from destroying Zionism, the new liberty gave it an immense stimulus."

Thus the above statement explains the fact that: "In all Bolshevik institutions the heads are Jews. They are contemptuous of everyone, which excites the people against them. They look upon Bolshevism as a Jewish affair . . . There is a great national religious fervor among the Jews. They believe that the promised time of the rule of 'God's elect' on earth is come."

Therefore the propaganda stories concerning the persecution of the Jews in Soviet Russia should be examined assiduously. For instance, the Zionist New York Times (2/16/51) headlined a story: "PURGING OF JEWS IN SOVIET LAND DECRINED IN PLEA FOR ACTION BY U. N." Its substance was that there is official anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union and its satellite countries of Eastern Europe, particularly Poland, and that Jews are being systematically purged in all phases of political, economic and cultural life. The Times article began:

"The national executive board of the Jewish Labor Committee called here tonight for a thorough inquiry by the United Nations of the cultural and spiritual liquidation of Jewish life in Russia and other Soviet-dominated countries behind the Iron Curtain."

The March 21st issue of the N. Y. Times carried a similar story, datelined "UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.," which stated in part: "A delegation of labor leaders charged here that persons of the Jewish faith in the Soviet Union and its satellites were being subjected to 'cultural and spiritual genocide.' " The N.Y. Herald-Tribune, Newsweek, Time, U. S. News and World Report and dozens of other such publications have carried similar stories. In fact, the Jewish Labor Committee appealed:

" . . . to the conscience of humanity to intervene in time to terminate this genocide" of Eastern Jewry and called on the U. N. "to use all possible means to rescue for the remaining Jews within the Soviet Union and its satellites the right to live in dignity, security and peace."

Is this reference to the "remaining Jews" an implication that the others were liquidated? How can we reconcile these allegations of "anti-Semitic genocide" with the fact that theoretically and practically, the whole of Eastern Europe is ruled by such Jews as "the butcher woman of Rumania," Ana Pauker; Rakosi, Gero, Farkas, Revai, Horvath and Zold of Hungary; Minc, Berman and Zambrowsky rule Poland and Levi, the real Dictator of Bulgaria? Peter Furst, writing in the June issue of Jewish Life, says he asked one of the anti-Soviet propagandists of the State Department controlled "COMMITTEE FOR A FREE EUROPE" for an explanation of this anti-Soviet propaganda relative to the persecution of Jewry fostered by the American State Department and the American official explained that the Jews of Russia and its satellites "are traitors to the Jewish people. They have become assimilated."

The London Jewish Chronicle, in an article "POLAND'S POLITBURO—THREE JEWISH MEMBERS," tells an interesting story which is typical of the "assimilationist" Jews, "traitors to the Jewish people" and apologetically begins: "of the 13 members of the executive (or Politbureau) only three are Jews," but the fact is that the Jews comprise but 0.3 percent of the Polish population, whereas 3 out of 13 constitutes 25 percent of the total population! The Jewish Chronicle, writing about two of these "assimilated" Jews, Jacob Berman and Hilary Minc, who rule Poland, says:

" . . . although he has ceased to be a practicing Jew, Berman enjoys and welcomes Jewish company, and his office and home are open to his former Jewish friends. He had a Jewish upbringing and is said to be often found reading a Yiddish book. At one time before the war he earned his living as a member of the staff of a Jewish news agency."

" . . . Hilary Minc is an assimilationist and Marxist, who nevertheless still likes to see his close Jewish friends and relatives and to crack a Jewish joke. As Minister of Industry and Chief Economic Planner of the new Poland, Minc has been responsible for giving more jobs to Jews than has any other minister in Poland. This is not because of any racial preference but because he insists on giving important posts to competent men . . ." (Quoted from Jewish Life, 6/1951)

In other words, the Jewish-Marxist version of the Fair Employment Practices Act in practice! Minc's excuse is typically Jewish, the most lucrative jobs are given to the Jews because they are "competent men." In the same Jewish Life article, Peter Furst reminds us that:

" . . . in 'officially anti-Semitic' Poland, the law not only provides stiff prison sentences for any manifestation of anti-Semitism but even makes the death penalty mandatory in cases where anti-Semitic agitation has led to violence (as in the Lielce pogrom in 1946)."

In the same issue of Jewish Life an article "FROM THE FOUR CORNERS" reports:

"THE EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY of the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising was celebrated all over the world in April. In Warsaw delegations of Jewish workers, trade unionists and political groups marched to the Ghetto memorial and held a ceremony there. The Polish Army assigned an honor guard for the occasion . . ."

People of reasonable intelligence will certainly question the veracity of the allegations in the Jewish dominated American press of anti-Semitism in Soviet Russia, for it is a matter of public knowledge that anti-Semitism is a crime against the Government, i.e., the Jews, in Russia. Stalin describes anti-Semitism as "cannibalism" in his statement which we quote:

"Anti-Semitism as the most extreme form of racial chauvinism is the most dangerous vestige of cannibalism. Anti-Semitism is useful to the exploiters as a lightning rod, pulling capitalism out from under the blows of the working class."

(Quoted from Jewish Life, 6/51)

Since we lack the necessary facilities to personally investigate Stalin's charge that the Russian anti-Semites eat the flesh of their Jewish victims, we will not dispute his statement. On the other hand, ample proof is presented by various Jewish publications that anti-Semitism is a capital offense in Soviet Russia, notwithstanding the fact that the Jewish financed and directed Revolution in Russia was responsible for the murder of some thirty million Christians. Opinion magazine, edited by the late Rabbi Wise (Stephen S. Wise), described the power of Jewry in Russia as follows:

"With the rise of the Soviet regime . . . never has the world witnessed such a spectacular change of front on the part of a great State toward Jews. . . . The State which previously did not employ any Jews at all, now employs in White Russia 61% Jewish officials . . . (Jewish population in Russia is less than 2% of the total). "A Jew is commander-in-chief of the Ukrainian Army; a Jew is President of the State Bank; Jews occupy most all important ambassadorial positions of the Soviet Union; the universities, professors, judiciary and administration, have now a greater percentage of Jews than any other nationality. Anti-Semitism has been declared a State Offense, and is punished as counter-revolution." (Dec. 1933).

The B'nai B'rith magazine of Nov., 1939, p. 82, states:

"The Jew . . . in Russia, has . . . achieved a prominent position in governmental affairs. Some have done it through sheer ability; others through marriage. Mrs. Molotov, wife of the Commissar of Foreign Affairs, is one of the Jews who has achieved a prominent position through marriage."

Call of Youth (3/36), organ of Workmen's Circle, Jewish Socialist Fraternal organization, wrote:

"A great percentage of young Jews in the Soviet are officials and are thus arousing the envy of other groups . . ."

The London Jewish Chronicle (1/6/33), largest conservative Jewish daily of England, wrote as follows about the Jews of Russia:

"Over one third of the Jews have become officials."

In the November 18, 1932 edition of the American Hebrew, the Editor wrote therein:

"According to such information as the writer could secure while in Russia a few weeks ago, not one Jewish Synagogue has been torn down, as have hundred, perhaps thousands of the Greek Catho-

MAC ARTHUR

If Werdel wins in the Republican primary he will have the authority to appoint the entire California Republican delegation of 70 members. Being a MacArthur-Taft man, naturally he will pick delegates who are for MacArthur and Taft, and, though he will release them to vote as they choose, it is a foregone conclusion that a Werdel delegation would back MacArthur or Taft. Warren would back himself, or perhaps trade out to Eisenhower for a cabinet or Supreme Court job.

Truman has refused to say whether or not he will run again but the very fact that he waits so long and hasn't built up a successor, tends to confirm my forecasts of long standing (and a report in Hearst papers of November 12, 1951) that he wants Eisenhower on both Republican and Democratic tickets.

As I have shown in past issues (incorporated in the Eisenhower Special Edition) this has been the Anti-Defamation League plan from the beginning. To nominate any man on both tickets of course would destroy the Republic, but what would please the Anti-Defamation League more than that?

Mr. Truman often acts in close harmony with the Anti-Defamation League in important political maneuvers. He has said more than once that he likes Ike and would be glad to see him given the Republican nod, and Eisenhower himself said Truman had offered to get him the Democratic nomination.

Suppose they succeed in getting the Republican nomination for Eisenhower. It would then be a simple matter for the New Deal element in control of the Democratic party to throw the Democratic nomination also to Eisenhower, "for the sake of unity" (unity with the Communists, Zionists and New Dealers). The Southern Democrats then would have nowhere to go except to line up behind Eisenhower also—unless their rugged independence and militant Americanism rebelled—since this kind of unity would mean the end of the Republic.

Since Senator Russell of Georgia has announced that he will run for the Democratic nomination, it seems unlikely that Eisenhower could get the South's backing, especially if he had previously accepted the Republican nomination.

It seems not unlikely also that if Eisenhower won the Republican nod, then accepted the Democratic New Deal label also—MacArthur, Taft and fellow Republicans might repudiate the nomination of Eisenhower and call another Republican convention.

We have seen so much evidence of the political naivete and lack of understanding on the part of Eisenhower, and evidence also of his amazing moral cowardice, we may doubt that he would dare to run unless assured he would win without having to debate the issues. He is a surprisingly humdrum and uninspiring radio speaker (I have heard him), and can be fired up this week on a big idea and fired up next week on the opposite—perhaps without even realizing his inconsistency. MacArthur, Taft, Russell or Dirksen would strip him naked as a picked chicken in a debate.

MacArthur succinctly sized him up, "I don't think he's got the guts to tackle the job" (of President).

Don't give up MacArthur; he still will accept if nominated, and he is the man we need.

The question is how to get MacArthur nominated. There is a slate for him in the Wisconsin primary April 1; while in Nebraska the Joan of Arc warrior, little Mary Kenney is asking the voters to let her pick the Republican delegation—for MacArthur.

Mrs. Kenney splurged into page one of the newspapers and into the hearts of many voters by her dramatic fight for MacArthur. She first entered her name for the primary (April 1). He withdrew his name. She then entered the name of General Wedemeyer (for MacArthur). He too withdrew, and just before the deadline for filing petitions. Unwilling to take no for an answer, Mrs. Kenney (aided by her husband) got in her car and raced day and night through four districts, ringing doorbells, storming crowds wherever people congregated—and filed the required number of signatures to put her on the ballot, just an hour before closing time.

Write editors in these states and contact friends there, urging support of the MacArthur slates. But above all, contact John Chapple, newspaper editor and founder of Fighters for MacArthur, Ashland, Wisc., and ask how you can help in the various states that have presidential preference primaries. If you can send him money, do so, to help pay for newspaper and radio ads.

Here is a suggestion:

In states where no MacArthur slate is entered, launch a WRITE-IN MacARTHUR campaign in newspapers and radio. Get neighbors and associates and patriotic organizations to help you pay for ads, and get them to write editors and make talks before service and other clubs, urging voters to write in the name of MacArthur. A good showing by this handicapped route might mean victory at Chicago July 7.

Meanwhile, let us double and treble the amount of literature we place in the hands of key persons in community, state and nation, showing them the basic facts about the racial revolution—the Marxist immigrant machine behind the New Deal, bent on destruction of Christianity and the white race.

Your dollar will be worth even less than the Truman dollar if we lose this election. Put every available cent into the 1952 fight.

We are on the way to a great victory. It is thrilling to be on the firing line this historic year. If we are the threatened, intimidated, terrorized race, still we are the element of mankind endowed with the qualities of resourceful leadership, and this endowment charges us with heavy responsibility.

Let us be worthy of the responsibility in this decisive year.

STATEMENT OF GENERAL MacARTHUR

I have been informed that petitions have been filed in Madison . . . Wisc. presenting my name to the electorate for consideration at the primary . . . I am deeply grateful for this display of friendly confidence. No man could fail to be profoundly stirred by such a public movement in this hour of momentous import, national and international, temporal and spiritual.

While it seems unnecessary for me to repeat that I do not actively seek or covet any office, and have no plans for leaving my post in Japan, I can say with due humility, that I would be recreant to all my concepts of good citizenship were I to shrink because of the hazards and responsibilities from accepting any public duty to which I might be called by the American people.—Tokio, 1948.

Black Paper On Korea

By GEORGE THOMAS ADAMS

In "Ambassador William Dodd's Diary," Dodd, U. S. Ambassador to Germany from 1933-1938, writes,

"Dec. 4, 1933: John Foster Dulles, legal counsel for associated American banks, called this afternoon to give an account of claims being urged on behalf of bondholders against German cities and corporations, more than a billion dollars. He seemed very clever and resolute."

"Jan 24, 1936: John Foster Dulles, a New York lawyer from Sullivan and Cromwell reported his difficulties in financial matters here."

John Foster Dulles is a director of International Nickel, American Banknote Co., and other corporations. He has been widely publicized as the protagonist of the Bipartisan foreign policy of betraying the United States, which was originated by the Rothschild policy group, the Council on Foreign Relations, of which he is on the executive committee. His brother, Allen W. Dulles, also of Sullivan & Cromwell, is President of the Council on Foreign Relations. Allen W. Dulles was also present at the Versailles Peace Conference as legal adviser to the United States, he was then Secretary in Charge of Near Eastern Affairs (Palestine) at the State Department until 1926, when he entered Sullivan & Cromwell. A director of the international banking house of J. Henry Schroeder & Co., he was head of the European division of the Office of Strategic Services during World War II.

Another partner of Sullivan & Cromwell is Eustace Seligman, also a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, and a member of the international banking family Seligman. His father, a famous gold standard economist, was head of the Dept. of Economics at Columbia University. Eustace Seligman is a director of the billion dollar Marine Midland Trust with the Lehman brothers, which controls the vast Niagara Power Co. properties.

To return to Beverley Smith, "The President landed at Washington Sunday at 7:15. He was met by Louis Johnson, then Secretary of Defense, and Under Secretary of State James Webb."

Louis Johnson, a corporation lawyer, was then President of the General Dyestuff Corporation, a subsidiary of the I. G. Farben branch in America, General Aniline and Film, of which he also was a director. I. G. Farben was the property of the international bankers Warburg, Paul Warburg of Kuhn, Loeb Co. and father of the Federal Reserve Act, set up the American branch as American I. G. Chemical, which later was changed to General Aniline and Film.

James Webb qualified for the State Department as the former Assistant to Thomas A. Morgan of the international banking house of Lehman Brothers. Morgan was also President of Sperry Gyroscope and Chairman of the munitions firm of Vickers, in which the English Rothschilds own a large interest, so that Webb knew all about starting a war.

When Truman met his advisers at the White House for dinner that evening, among them was the Secretary of the Air Force Thomas K. Finletter, who for years had been a partner in the law firm of Cravath and Henderson, lawyers for Kuhn, Loeb Co. Finletter was a member of the treacherous U. S. Delegation to San Francisco in 1945, and he was a trustee of the Communist-front New School of Social Research in New York.

Smith writes that at dinner at eight o'clock at Blair House that fateful Sunday evening, "conversation was general, and no notes were taken." It is surprising to the historian that at so many of these eventful occasions the participants talk about nothing in particular and take no notes. For instance, the Supreme Council at the Versailles Peace Conference in 1919 took no notes, nor did the historic luncheon of the directors of the European Central Banks and the Governors of the Federal Reserve Board at Washington in 1927 yield a single note, although a Congressional Investigation proved that the Depression of 1929-1933 was planned at this meeting.

Of President Truman's decision to commit American troops to Korea, Smith writes, "Practically every major newspaper in the country approved, with the exception of the Chicago Tribune and its affiliate, the Washington Times-Herald. Taft later indicated he would have voted in favor of it." Perhaps this was after Taft conferred with his adviser, Rabbi Silver.

Congressional leaders with Truman at this time were Senator Scott Lucas of Illinois, defeated for re-election because of underworld affiliations, and Senator Millard Tydings of Maryland whose clearing of State Department Communists turned the voters against him.

On the following Thursday Truman and his advisers again met at the White House at five o'clock including "John Foster Dulles, just back from Korea, Averell Harriman, hastily summoned back from Paris; Stuart Symington, then Chairman of the National Security Resources Board, and James Lay, executive secretary of the National Security Council."

Averell Harriman succeeded Philip Jessup as U. S. Ambassador-at-large, a position held during the Roosevelt regime by the J. & W. Seligman employee Norman H. Davis, who was also President of the Council on Foreign Relations. Harriman was accompanied everywhere by the German Jew Walter J. Levy, a specialist in international oil. Harriman's father, E. H. Harriman, was the front man on Wall Street for Jacob Schiff of Kuhn, Loeb Co. when Schiff acquired the great Union Pacific properties from the United States Government for the Rothschilds. Averell Harriman is a partner in Brown Brothers Harriman, investment bankers and agents for Kuhn Loeb. The present Secretary of Defense Robert Lovett, also a partner in Brown Brothers Harriman, held several directorships in British insurance firms which were controlled by the Rothschilds.

James Lay, also present at the White House during the Korean crisis, is executive secretary of the National Security Council, an organization which is understandably reticent about its activities, for it is a OGPU type group which exists to gauge and undermine American resistance to Communism. Security, whenever used officially today, does not mean the security of the American people, but the security of the international bankers who have promoted and financed Communism, and who are now devoted to its goal of world domination.

Smith's article continues "Senator Wherry said that he thought that the President ought to consult Congress before sending ground troops. Mr. Truman told of the urgent events of the last eighteen hours."

Smith quotes William S. White's New York Times report of the event, "The delegation returned to the Capitol in a somber but elevated mood."

And Smith concludes, "At 1:22 P. M., almost precisely six days after the fighting started, the orders were on the way to MacArthur. We were in."

lic Churches . . . In Moscow and other large cities one can see Christian Churches in the process of destruction . . . the Government needs the location for large buildings."

The Soviet Government, according to the above and various other Jewish reports, never required the space occupied by Jewish synagogues for buildings, only those sites occupied by Christian churches. There is not a Christian church in all of Soviet Russia today where public worship is permitted. What of the present status of the Jews in that miserable country? A dispatch datelined Moscow, 4/20/51, appearing in the N. Y. Times, reads in part as follows:

"The festival of Passover was celebrated tonight with traditional ceremonies in Moscow's crowded Central Synagogue. At sundown the voice of Moscow's famed Cantor Barkan resounded sonorously in solemn chants commemorating the Exodus of the Jews from Egypt. Later in the evening in thousands of Moscow's Orthodox Jewish homes the customary feast of unleavened bread was eaten.

"Moscow's Central Synagogue is only a few blocks from the center of the city. Tonight's congregation appeared to be a representative cross-section of the Jewish populace, young, middle-aged and some elderly bearded Jews. There were a number of women, many of them smartly dressed, in the gallery, which runs around three sides of the temple. . . . The synagogue was illuminated brilliantly by electric candelabras, as well as many seven-branched candlesticks. The nave was beautifully decorated."

Following are excerpts from a report published in the London Jewish Chronicle (3/23/1951), by Gerald Abrahams, a Liverpool lawyer and chess master who attended the chess matches in Moscow:

"Younger Jews are . . . almost completely assimilated in the Soviet outlook and suggest the young merchant of New York, completely Americanized. . . . All the Jews of Moscow have the word 'Yevrai' (Jew) printed on their passports. This alarms them much less than it alarmed me. (Mr. Abrahams seems unaware that all Soviet passports have the nationality, no matter which, of the person's mother noted on them.—Eds.) . . . None of the Jews I chatted with was afraid to discuss matters and all seem genuinely confident as to their future well-being. Jews below the age of 50 generally have the interests of the Soviet citizens. The synagogue which I found . . . was just off what appeared to be an important street. . . . I found a handsome Shool of the most important Orthodox type, complete with Bima, Aron Kodesh, pulpit and Siddurim. The Shammash, capable and hard-working, might have existed in a London Synagogue. . . . in the circles in which I moved, the aristocracy of Russia . . . I found many Jews well known to me, I came away convinced that they, at least, are living happy and prosperous lives."

The above articles should disprove immediately the lying propaganda of the Jewish controlled American Press which would have the American people believe the Jews are being persecuted in Russia. How do the Jews fare in the Soviet controlled countries of Eastern Europe? Hungary, for instance? The Vienna correspondent of the London Jewish Chronicle reported in the April 13, 1951 edition as follows:

"Some detail of Jewish life in Budapest were given to me recently by Hungarian Jews who passed through Vienna on their way to Israel. The Budapest Community (Kehilla) supervises the activities of all Jewish communities in Hungary, whether Reform or Orthodox. The President, Dr. L. Stoeckler, is in private life the director of the State-controlled lace factory, which formerly belonged to him.

"Budapest as 11 synagogues and several smaller places of worship. All are well attended on Sabbath and Holy days but on week days it is usually difficult to form a minyan. Dr. Benjamin Schwarz is president of the Rabbinical College, which has 40 students."

On the one hand, we find the Pontiff of the Catholic Church, Pius XII, calling upon Eastern European Catholics to be brave martyrs for their faith, while the above articles serve to remind us that the Jews practice their religion openly and freely. Who is being persecuted in Eastern Europe, the satellite countries of the U.S.S.R.? Certainly not the Jews! All evidence on the contrary points to the violent persecution of the Christians. Turning for a moment to Yugoslavia:

"An interview of a London Jewish Chronicle reporter with Moshe Pijade, the Jewish Vice President of Tito's Yugoslavia, held in London in March, concluded with the following: 'There was one subject, however, on which Mr. Pijade was less forthcoming—the problem of German rearmament. The Yugoslavs, he said, were against rearming the Germans; but they recognized that the whole problem was complicated.'

(Quoted from Jewish Life, 6/51)

Concerning Czechoslovakia, the following letter by A. Wolffe, Labor Councillor of West Ham, London, was published in Labour Israel, Mapam organ in England, in the April 1951 issue:

"I have just returned from a visit to Czechoslovakia, the second in the past six months. I had conversations with a number of Jews in Prague and elsewhere and the vast majority are more than happy with conditions prevailing there. . . . Racial discrimination or anti-Semitic utterances are punishable by law. The only shadow hanging over their heads is the proposed rearming of Germany. To them an armed Germany with reinstated Nazi leaders is only too painfully real to be merely criticized or commented upon."

The above article on Yugoslavia should convince the reader that there are no behind-the-scenes differences between Jewish dominated Yugoslavia and Jewish controlled Russia. The same International Jews responsible for the Revolution in Russia also put Tito in power in Yugoslavia and it is obvious that the Jew, Pijade, is the real ruler of that unhappy country. All Jews everywhere, regardless of the country they rule, owe allegiance to Zionism and any seeming public differences are merely a smokescreen, i.e., a benefit act for the stupid Gentiles. In the words of the Jewish writer, Moses Hess in Rom und Jerusalem, "Every Jew is, whether he wishes it or not, solidly united with the entire Jewish nation." Rene Groos, Jewish author, writing in Le Nouveau Mercure, (5/27), Paris, declared: "There is a Jewish conspiracy against all nations." What is the nature of this conspiracy? The prominent Jewish novelist, Samuel Roth, in his book, Now and Forever, (1925), sums it up as follows:

"Europe is in the process of decay. There will rise once more the spirit . . . in the countries East of the Red Sea. Is it not this that we Jews should pray for?

"We Jews must wait a long time. When the period of waiting is over, the whole face of the world will have changed. America will be as old as England is today." (Decayed with Socialism?). "The bones of Europe will move with a faint shudder of decay. America will expel the Jews. The yellow peoples will be on her back and at her throat.

"A terrible man will arise. This man will become leader of an enterprise of vengeance. The yellow cloud will slowly descend in their midst. The lives of the peoples of Europe will flow out of them. In Russia only sucklings and illiterates will be spared. Of Poland and the Ukraine he will make a howling wilderness. All the women in those countries will be put to shame before being killed."

This is what "we Jews should pray for," says Roth, and with the aid of the American people, money and arms, much of it has already been accomplished. After we Americans assist the Jews in completing the destruction of Europe, the Jews will then turn the Asiatic hordes upon us—at our backs and at our throats. Is it any wonder, then, that the Kalmuck Jew, Lenin, decreed:

"The Council of People's Commissars has instructed all Soviet Deputies to take uncompromising measures to tear out the Anti-Semitic movement by the roots; pogroms are to be placed outside the law."

The Jewish-Marxist novelist, Sholem Asch, commented on anti-Semitism in Soviet Russia as follows in the Jewish World, London, 6/29/22:

"In Russia peasants, soldiers, women, city-dwellers, everybody hates Jews. . . . Jews of Russia are unanimous in believing that the fall of the Soviets and the grasping of power by other hands would be the greatest calamity for Jews that can be imagined."

Again, in Golos Rossii, the same Leftist writer Asch, warns:

"The slightest shaking of the Soviet regime would mean death for the Jews."

Until the headlines of the Times and other American newspapers scream: "REVOLUTION SWEEPS SOV-IET," it is not possible to believe that the Jews are being persecuted in the U.S.S.R. and its satellites!

In some 5,000 words of "Why We Went to War In Korea", Beverly Smith repeatedly states that we went in to stop Communist aggression. From his own account, however, we learn that the State Department officials and military advisers with Truman at this time were the same individuals who for several years followed a consistent policy of turning China over to the Communists, sabotaging the Kuomintang Party of Chiang Kai-Shek, diverting millions of dollars worth of war goods to the Communist forces under Mao, and preventing military aid which had been authorized by Congress from reaching the South Koreans BEFORE the North Korean attack. No card-carrying member of the Communist Party could have been more devoted to the success of Stalin until June of 1950. What was the case of this sudden about-face on the problem of Communist aggression? Was it the decision that Russia had now been sufficiently strengthened by ECA goods to fight a Third World War? For these same people and their interests promoted Hitler throughout the Nineteen Thirties until he was strong enough to start the Second World War, and suddenly, in 1939, he found his international credits cut off and the bankers aligned against him.

With Smith's account in the Saturday Evening Post is a picture of John Foster Dulles with the caption "John Foster Dulles was one of the first officials to propose that we commit our troops in Korea." Dulles' capacity as the agent of international bankers is obvious enough, but study fails to reveal any "official" capacity in this crisis. He is also a power in the National Council of Churches of Christ which has done so much to get Christianity to lie down in the same bed with Communism, and whose sympathies and activities are much more Hebraic than Christian. Dulles is a devout man, and, while planning the murder of a million American boys, he is able to toss off Christian platitudes, which are faithfully reported in Time and Life, the publications of fellow-Council on Foreign Relations member Henry Luce.

It is this historian's conclusions that the Korean War had two purposes,

First, the protection of investments by Jewish bankers in Japan and Korea.

Second, the slaughter of hundreds of thousands of American youths in a softening-up process of the United States for a Russian invasion.
